Casita Molino

Unique Holiday Cottage in Rural Spain

Casita Molino is in the beautiful wine growing region of the Priorat, northern Spain. The casita has been modernised without losing it's rural charm and features mosaic and original artwork throughout. The cottage consists of one double bedroom, open plan fully equipped kitchen and lounge with a pull out sofa bed and log burner. Mosaic wetroom shower with private pool, deck and views of the valleys and foot hills of the Monsant mountains.

A region famous for food culture and wine

Situated amongst organic olive, almond and hazelnut terraces with vineyards on either side. The casita is near the small town of Falset in southern Catalonia. From here you can easily explore the surrounding historic area including wineries, national parks and villages by bicycle, foot or car. Catalonia has a vibrant cultural and artistic heritage and there are many local festivals taking place throughout the year. The Priorat is part of the Costa Daurada and thirty minutes from the golden beaches, golf courses and the theme park PortAventura in Salou.
